CALL FOR POEMS, SPOKEN WORD AND SONGS

THEME: NATIONAL VALUES AND PRINCIPLES OF GOVERNANCE

The Kenya Institute for Public Policy Research and Analysis (KIPPRA), in collaboration with Maseno University has organized a research and public policy workshop which will take place on the 8th and 9th March 2023, at Maseno University , under the KIPPRA flagship programme called KIPPRA Mentorship Programme for Universities (KMPUs). The programme seeks to mentor university students and faculty for effective participation in public policy formulation, research, policy analysis, and debate. The event brings together university students, lecturers, the government, and the private sector. One of the key activities during the event will be to sensitize university students, lecturers, government, and private sector participants on Article 10 of the Constitution on "National Values and Principles of Governance".

This is a call for interested students at Maseno University to submit original poems, spoken word and songs that speak to Article 10 of the Constitution, on the 17 national values and principles of governance, for consideration. The entries will be evaluated, and the top performances will be selected for presentation during the event.

The entries should meet the following criteria:

i. Include full name, university, school/department, registration number, university email, and mobile phone number of the presenter(s).
ii. Not exceeding 3 minutes audio or video clip.
iii. A student will submit one audio or video clip only.
iv. Each submission to address at least 4 national values and principles of governance.

The deadline for submission of the essays is Friday 10th February 2023, after which they will undergo a review process and successful entries will be notified by Wednesday 15th February 2023.

All Submissions to be addressed to: Dr. Nancy Nafula - Email: mentorship@kippra.or.ke
