

CALL FOR POEMS, SPOKEN WORD AND SONGS

THEME: NATIONAL VALUES AND PRINCIPLES OF GOVERNANCE

The Kenya Institute for Public Policy Research and Analysis (KIPPRA), in collaboration with Jaramogi Oginga Odinga University of Science and Technology (JOOUST), has organized a research and public policy workshop which will take place on the 2nd & 3rd of December 2021, under KIPPRA flagship programme called KIPPRA Mentorship Programme for Universities (KMPUs). The programme seeks to mentor university students and lecturers for effective participation in the public policy formulation, research, policy analysis, and debate. The event brings together university students, lecturers, government, and private sector. One of the key activities during the event will be to sensitize university students, lecturers, government, and private sector participants on Article 10 of the Constitution on 'National Values and Principles of Governance'.

This is a call for interested students at JOOUST and participating universities within the Lake Region Economic Bloc to submit poems, spoken word and songs that speak to Article 10 of the Constitution, on the 17 national values and principles of governance, for consideration. The entries will be evaluated, and the top performances will be selected for presentation during the event.

The entries should meet the following criteria:

1. Include full name, university, school/department, registration number, email, and mobile phone number of the presenter(s).
2. Not exceeding 3 minutes video clip.
3. A student will submit one video clip only.
4. Submissions MUST indicate the word JOOUST TALENT MANAGEMENT on the email subject line.

The deadline for submission of the essays is Friday 16th November 2021, after which they will undergo a review process and successful entries will be notified by Friday 26th December 2021.

All Submissions to be addressed to and submitted to Dr. Nancy Nafula through the email mentorship@kippra.or.ke and copied to Keziah Ogada – JOOUST University through the email pr@jooust.ac.ke
